16 All documents filed with this Court must abide by the redaction requirements for personal
17 identifiers. Local Rule IC 6-1(a). Some of the documents filed in this case comply with the redaction
18 requirements and some do not. Compare Docket No. 1 (caption using initials of minor) with Docket No.
19 2 (caption providing full name of minor). Accordingly, the Court hereby SEALS Docket Nos. 1-2 and 20 all exhibits thereto. The Court further ORDERS Defendant Minnesota Life Insurance Company to file
21 versions of those documents on the public docket with redactions to any and all personal identifying 22 information within 7 days of the issuance of this order.<sup>1</sup> The Clerk's Office is also INSTRUCTED to 23 remove the minor's full name from the docket, and to replace it with the initials A.T.
24

25 _____
26 <sup>1</sup> The Court declines to identify for Defendant all instances of necessary redaction. Cf. Local Rule
27 IC 6-1(c). The Court notes that, at a minimum, the minor's full name and birth date, which currently appear 28 in the filings, must be redacted. See, e.g., Docket No. 1-3 at 8. Counsel must carefully review the materials that have been filed and ensure that all instances of personal identifiers are redacted as required by the local rules.

The Court expects strict compliance with Local Rule IC 6-1 moving forward.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
